AFI 34-401, 21 July 1994, is supplemented as follows:

5.1. (Added) USAF Academy activities desiring to obtain approval for guests or special groups to subsist in the High Country Inn during normal meal hours will submit a written request a minimum of 2 weeks prior to the desired dates to the Military Support Flight (10 SVS/SVM). Only those groups who are officially sponsored by the USAF Academy and/or are officially invited guests of the USAF Academy will receive consideration for approval.

5.2. (Added) Participants of USAF or USAF Academy sponsored encampments, or visits of organized nonprofit youth groups may eat during meal hours provided at least a 2-week advance written notice is given to the High Country Inn (10 SVS/SVMF).

5.3. (Added) Dependents, relatives, and guests of active duty military personnel may subsist in the High Country Inn no more than twice weekly. Retired military personnel and their dependents are authorized to subsist in the High Country Inn no more than twice weekly but will be required to pay the full meal rate.
